

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, December 18. 1708

Madrid, Nov. 27.

THE King, on Account of the extraordinary Scarcity of Corn throughout all Spain, has caus'd a Declaration to be publish'd, in which he signifies that all Ships of the Enemy laden with Corn may enter the Ports of this Kingdom without any Molestation, and depart as safely with Lading of the Produce of this Country. By an extraordinary Courier, Bills of Exchange for 50000 Pieces of Eight are sent from this Court to the Duke d' Uzeda at Rome, to be employ'd in necessary Preparations for the Defence of the Kingdom of Sicily; the Preservation of which Kingdom is thought by this Court to be a Matter of very great Importance.

Paris, Dec. 17. Our Gazette of the 15th Instant gives the following Account of the Honours shewn at Court to Signior Salviati, who is come higher from the Pope with a Present of blessed Swadling-Cloths for the Duke of Brittany.

The 9th of this Month of December, M. Almanno Salviati, Nuncio Extraordinary from the Pope, made his publick Entry into this City. The Count de Brionne, who has the Reversion of the Office of Master of the Horse to the King after his Father's Decease, and M. de Sainctot Introduc'tor of Ambassadors, went to receive him in the King's Coach at the Monastery of Picpus, whence they proceeded in the following Order. The Coach of the Introduc'tor, that of the Count de Brionne, the Nuncio's Footmen walking, his Gentleman of the Horse and Pages on Horseback; the King's Coach; those of the Dutchess of Burgundy, of Madam, of the Duke of Orleans, of the Dutchess of Orleans, of the Prince and Princess of Conde, of the Duke and Dutchess of Bourbon, of the Princess Dowager of Conti, of the Prince and Princess of Conti, of the Duke and Dutchess of Maine, of the Count de Toulouse, and of the Marquis de Torcy Minister and Secretary of State for foreign Affairs: And at the Distance of 30 or 40 Paces the Nuncio's Coaches which were very Magnificent.

Arriving at his Palace, he was complimented in the King's Name by the Duke de la Tremoille first Gentleman of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber; and by other Persons of Quality on the Part of the Dutchess of Burgundy, of Madam, and of the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans.

The 11th the Count de Brionne and M. de Sainctot Introduc'tor of Ambassadors, went to receive the Nuncio extraordinary at his Palace, and conducted him in the King's and the Dutchess of Burgundy's Coaches to Versailles, where he had his first publick Audience of his Majesty. He found in his Passage, in the outward Court of the Palace, the Companies of French and Swiss Guards in two Lines under Arms, the Drums beating a March, &c: He was receiv'd at the Entrance of the Palace by M. des Granges Master of the Ceremonies, the Hundred Swiss being there and on the Staircase in their Habits of Ceremony, their Halbards in their Hands; and at the Door within the Guard-Hall by the Marshal Duke d' Harcour, Captain of the Life-Guards, who made a Lane, under Arms. After the Audience the King went into his Closet, whither he was follow'd by the Nuncio, and view'd the blessed Swadling-Cloaths sent by the Pope for the Duke of Brittany, which are very magnificent Presents, both with respect to their Number, and to the Richness and Excellence of the Workmanship.

The Nuncio had afterwards Audience of the Dauphin, of the Duke of Burgundy, and of the Dutchess of Burgundy, who going afterwards into the Apartment of the Duke of Brittany, the Nuncio went thither; and in the Audience he had of the young Prince, presented to him on the Part of the Pope the Swadling-Cloaths blessed by his Holiness. He had Audience likewise of the Duke de Berry, and of the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans; and having been treated by the King's Officers, was conducted back hither by M. de Sainctot, in the same Coaches, with the usual Ceremonies.

Edinburgh, Dec. 10. Yesterday Morning upon the Receipt of the News of the surrender of the Citadel of Lisle, the Flag of our Castle was hung out, under the Discharge of 9 Guns; and at Twelve, a whole Round was given by all the Artillery of the Castle: at Four the great Bells of the City began to Ring; and all other demonstrations of Joy were used upon this happy Occasion.

Falmouth, Dec. 13. This Day put in the Katherine Galley of and for London in 29 Days from Alicante, but left from Gibraltar, Roger Carter Master, who reports that the Day before he left Alicante, 500 Horse and 1000 of the Enemy's Foot appear'd before it, and that 20 Frigats and Gallies which were to joyn at Cartagena were expected every Day in that Bay in order to attack it. Captain Carter brings Passenger Mr. James Jamieson, who was lately Commander of the Houblon Galley of London from Newfoundland, and was taken in the Streights and carry'd into Carthage, who reports that several Sail of Ships have been carry'd into Cadiz, of which he hears most are from Newfoundland.

Bristol, Dec. 15. Last Night arriv'd here the Peterborough Frigate Samuel Jacob Master, from Gibraltar in 16 Days: There came out with her the George Galley, John Wotton Master for this Port, which which we hope is in Ireland. Cap. Jacob reports, that the Dragan Frigor of this Port from Newfoundland for the Streights, was taken and carry'd into Cadiz, as also the little Ruffel; both taken by two French Men of War.

Dartmouth, Dec. 14. This Day came in here the Conqueror of and for Weymouth, Thomas Soaper Master from Gibraltar, laden with Wine and Fruit. The Speedwell, John, and Betty, all three from Virginia for Lyme are in this Harbour; as is the Squadron commanded by my Lord Dursley in Torbay.

Yarmouth, Dec. 15. Yesterday pass'd through this Road Her Majesty's Ship the Fox from the Southward, and with her came into this Road one of our London Traders: This Day pass'd through about 14 Sail of light Colliers to the Northward without Convoy.

Harwich, Dec. 16. Several Merchant-Ships for Rotterdam are here wanting Convoy. The Newcastle, Dragon, Faulkland and Greyhound are order'd to Gotenburg.

Not Acted these Ten Years.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, this present Saturday, being the 18th of December, will be Reviv'd a Comedy call'd, Epsom Wells. The parts of Rains by Mr. Powell, Revil by Mr. Mills, Woodvil by Mr. Wilks, Clotspate by Mr. Johnson, Tribble by Mr. Pinkethman, Pliskett by Mr. Bullock, Kick by Mr. Pack, Cuff by Mr. Fairbank, Carolina by Mrs. Oldfield, Lucia by Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Woodvil by Mrs. Knight, and all the other Parts to the best Advantage.

This Play is Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Lister next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar.

By Subscription.

AT the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Saturday, being the 18th of December, will be presented a New Opera, call'd, Pyrrhus and Demetrius. The Boxes to be open'd to the Pit. And no Person to be admitted but by the Subscribers Tickets, which will be deliver'd this Day Morning at Mr. White's Chocolate-House in St. James's-street. Boxes up in the Stage 15 s. First Gallery 5 s. Upper Gallery 2 s. To begin exactly at 6 a Clock. And by Command, no Person to stand upon the Stage.

FOR SALE BY THE CANDLE.

On Wednesday the 22d Instant, at Lloyd's Coffee-House in Lombard-street, at 4 a Clock, 56 Hhds and 4 Pipes of Red Gallicia Wines, alias - - - - - Neat and an entire Parcel, just imported from North-Britain; in a Vault near Column-street-end in Fenchurch-street. To be seen next Monday till the Hour of Sale. To be sold by Tho. Tomkins, Broker.

This is to give Notice, That of the Volume of Dr. Grabe's Septuaginta, which is now in the Press, the Psalms, with other Hymns of the Old and New Testament, (th y being in Alexandrian Manuscript annex'd) the Book of Job, and the Proverbs of Solomon are already Printed, and the whole will be finish'd (God willing) in a few Weeks. Therefore all Gentlemen that are willing to Subscribe are desir'd forthwith to send in their first Payment (being 5 s. for the Folio, and 3 s. for the Octavo) to the Undertaker Henry Clements at the Half-Moon in St. Paul's Church-yard.

There remaining a small Number of

The Philosophical Transactions publish'd by the Royal Society, beginning at N<sup>o</sup>. 196. for the Month of January, &c. 1693, and concluding with N<sup>o</sup>. 312, for December 1707, which have hitherto been sold for 12 d. a piece, are now propos'd at 8 d. to all Gentlemen till the 10th of January next ensuing, by Benj. Walford at the Prince's Arms in St. Paul's Church-yard, London.

This Day is Publish'd,

The Moralists, a Philosophical Rhapsody. Being a Recital of certain Conversations on Natural and Moral Subjects. Printed for J. Wyat at the Rose in St. Paul's Church-yard.

Now in the Press to be insert'd in the New Collection of Voyages and Travels.

A Voyage to Port-Royal in Acadia, or New France; containing a particular Account of the several Currents of the Sea in a Passage of a considerable length, the Description of the Country, the Employment of the French who are settled there, the Customs and Manners of the sundry Savage Nations, their Superstitions and Way of Hunting, with a curious Dissertation concerning the Beaver. Written in French by Monsieur Deneville, and Printed at Rouen this present Year 1708. Printed and Sold by J. Knapton in St. Paul's Church-yard, 1 Round in Exchange-Alley in Cornhill, N. Cliffe in Cheap-side, E. Sanger and A. Collins in Fleetstreet.

A Modest Enquiry into the Weight of Theodore Eccleston's Reply to a Serious Exposition with the Quakers. In a 2d Letter to a Parishioner of Ponty Pool, Monmouthshire. By the Author of the former. Printed for J. Morphew near Stationer's-Hall, and Sold by Sam. Rogers Bookseller in Abergavenny.

Just publish'd,

Self-Murder asserted to be a very heinous Crime; in Opposition to all Arguments brought by the Deists, to the contrary. To which is added, A Prodigy of Providence, containing The Wonderful Preservation of a Woman of Tormes, who endea- your'd, Jan. 25. 1707. to drown herself, by leaping over the Bridge, near 20 Foot high, into the River running by that Town. A Story vvell attested, yet hardly to be parallel'd in History. With many necessary Instructions how to avoid a Sin of this Nature. By John Truett, M.A. Vicar of Berry-Pomeroy, in the County of Devon. Sold by B. Bragge in Peter-Noster-Rovv. Pr. 1 s.

Just publish'd the 23d Edition of

The Great Concern; or, A Serious Warning to a Timely and Thorough Preparation for Death: With Helps and Directions in order thereunto. By Edw. Pearce. Recommended as proper to be given at Funerals. Printed for J. Robinson at the Golden-Lyon in St. Paul's Church-yard.

Proposals are this Day Publish'd, for Printing by Subscription, all the Works of the Right Reverend and most Learned Prelate, Edward Stillingfleet, late Lord Bishop of Worcester, in Six Volumes in Folio, with an Account of his Life; and may be had of the Undertaker, Henry Mortlock, at the Phoenix in St. Paul's Church-yard, and of the Book-sellers in London and Westminster, and also in the Country.

The Common-Prayer-Book the best Companion to prepare Communicants for the Lord's Supper; being a preparatory Office collected out of the Liturgy of the Church of England and other Authors, with Persuasive Discourses to prove the Divinity of that Holy Sacrament, and the necessity of receiving it. By a Divine of the Church of England. The Third Edition. The New-year's Gift complete, compos'd of Meditations and Prayers for every Day in the Week; with Devotions for the Sacrament, Lent, and other Occasions: both sold by H. Mortlock, at the Phoenix in St. Paul's Church-yard.

Just publish'd,

A Compleat Journal of the Votes, Speeches and Debates, both of the House of Lords and House of Commons throughout the whole Reign of Queen Elizabeth, of Glorious Memory. Collected by that Eminent Member of Parliament, Sir Simonds D'Ewes, Baronet. Very useful for all Gentlemen, especially Parliament Men. Printed for Jonathan Robinson at the Golden-Lyon in St. Paul's Church-yard.

Honorato Fornello, Genr. no Physician, could hardly be persuaded to publish his Dissolution Sale, as being laborious to be made, and since it has been (which you know is a good while ago) People have and do flock to buy it, as also send for it out of Foreign Countries, as New-England, &c. giving it its due Praise. It is a Remedy for the Stone and Gravel, which it totally roots out, by dissolving it in the Kidneys and Bladder, and carries it away insensibly by Urine, yet mildly it made in a Vial and suffer'd to settle, being undeniable that the Stone is dissolv'd. He was cured by it himself, as also divers Gentlemen in London since it has been publish'd, and others have found a great Benefit by it, which are not willing their Names should be expos'd, by observing the Rule, next God's Blessing, none shall have need to be cut for this Distemper. Whoever will prevent the settling of Gravel, take a Dose in 8 or 14 Days and continue so, that Body shall never smart for it. It keeps good many Years. For a larger Account and Directions, you are refer'd to the Paper given with it, being to be had of Mr. Thomas Dowse, Perfumer, at the Sign of the Plough in Grace-Church-street, and Mr. Robert Parry Perfumer at the West-end of Exeter-Change the House with the Windmill, London, and no where else in all England. Price 4 s. the half Ounce which is 8 Doses.

A certain and speedy Cure and present Ease for Persons that are afflicted with the Gout, that it shall never return again! My Bismick Medicine cures of the Cause, strengthening the Stomack, stops Vomiting, cures the Vapours, creates an Appetite, revives the Animal Spirits. This Bismick Medicine also Cures the Rheumatism, nor obnoxious or Troublesome to the Patient: It Cures Ulcerations in the Bladder or Kidneys, Strangury, bloody, black, folding Urine, venereal Glands if many Years relapse. I perform these Cures in a short time without Confinement. Persons that are remote may have their Cure, as well as if they were with me, if they send to me at the Hand and Eye, the second House to the corner of Mansell-street, near the Green Man in Alibi Street in Goodman's Fields.

A good Remedy against the Scurvy, easing the Pain and in time Roots out the Cause. The Distempers coming therefrom are innumerable, but the most dangerous are the Strich and Pains in the Sides and Throat, for which People generally Bleed, to the hazard of their future Health, as daily Experience shews by the many Consumptions, Palies, Dropies, &c. which too often follows Blood-Letting. But by this Medicine, if taken according to Directions, there will be no occasion for Bleeding. This Remedy is so prepar'd that it will keep good many Years; and is to be had at Mr. Tho. Alcroft's at the Blue-Coat-Boy against the Royal-Exchange.

At Thomas Lyle's Apothecary in Winchester-street near New-Bedlam, London, are only to be Sold, and no where else, the Original Drawing Ointment and Plaster, which has been above 40 Years in Practice, and has gain'd great Reputation in this Kingdom, in Curing Head-achs, Convulsions, Rheumatic Pains, Sore-Eyes, and many other Distempers where Evacuation is requir'd, as great Numbers have experienc'd. This Ointment never causes Inflammations or Sticking of Urine, as all Counterfeits do. Price 2 s. each Pot, with sticking Plasters for its use at 6 d. each Box, containing 4 Dozen of Plasters. At the same Place are sold the best Black and white Pontefract Liquorish Cakes, good for Coughs, Hoarseness, Pysick, Asthma, Shortness of Breath, &c. being stamp'd with the Castle and T. Lyle Pontefract round them.

LONDON Printed, and Sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.